The Applicant: An Insider's Guide to the College Admissions Process Ishan Puri

The Applicant is an essential college admissions guide that is unlike others. Instead of trying to hint at "secrets", this book will provide concrete actions that students, parents, and counselors can perform to increase chances of admission. In addition, through the Perspective Approach, The Applicant helps students find a reason for themselves to learn, apply to colleges, and even find jobs. Based on the proven track record of a Stanford University student and Synocate, this book aims at an international angle, giving strategies for all kinds of students. The Applicant is a workbook that is meant to help each reader in their own way, whether you are a senior looking for last-minute advice or a 5th grader looking to see the journey ahead. Good luck and never stop dreaming.
