Life-transforming Bible Studies

In the face of opposition and death, with almost no one around to support him, Elijah stood firm and faithfully proclaimed an unpopular message of repentance in a world that was comfortable with sin and idolatry. He trusted God to provide for him and protect him from harm.

With this Walk Thru the Bible discussion guide, you will journey through the remarkable and mysterious life of a prophet who experienced God's power and presence at every turn. You will explore the striking similarities between Elijah's world and ours. And you will be inspired to make your own stand for truth as a modern-day Elijah.

This guide will help the members of your group dig deeply, engage each other, and relate biblical teachings to their lives with amazing clarity.
