Based on 15 years of experience and eight years of research, Debt Free College is today's answer for students who wish to avoid financial bondage. College students will be offered over $100,000 in loans with simply a signature and student ID. Debt Free College is the only book on the market that risks taking on the establishment to reveal the real cost of the PLUS and Stafford Loans and how to avoid them with scholarships, grants and alternative funding sources. This new book provides access to thousands of scholarships and grants worth millions plus key alternative funding programs. Clearly the information presented offers students a light at the end of the graduation tunnel focused on debt avoidance.

Debt Free College includes critical information on submitting essays, selecting a college, service cancelable student loans and even a free computer analysis by return mail. The book is filled with financial helps for every student including a detailed chapter on money management (campus credit cards, college checking accounts and an easy to follow spending plan). In addition, there are chapters on what schools look for, special grants and scholarships, prepaid tuition plans, the current tax revisions, the latest military options plus charts and graphs illustrating the amount of savings need to fund a college education in the future.
