One method of enjoying reading the Bible is to live the events as one reads them by becoming an observer or a participant in those events. The author applied this method in writing this novel. He became James, the lad who was carrying five loaves of bread and two fish which Jesus blessed to feed over five thousand people. From this point of view, the author followed James' growth in love of Jesus. Through listening to Jesus' teachings, observing His miraculous deeds, observing Him on the way to the cross, and hearing the news of His resurrection from the dead, James developed his understanding of Jesus Christ. First, he thought of Him as a prophet, then the Messiah. Finally, he believed that He is the Son of God. His aim in life became serving the Lord that he loved so much.
