“When you stand at Largo do Senado with your back to the fountain, it takes around 2 minutes on foot to “St. Dominic’s Church”. This is the information you may get for “St. Dominic’s Church”, one of the famous attractions in Macau. On the other hand, this book gives you the information on the same church as follows. “Take a bus No. 3 at Macau Ferry Terminal and alight from the bus at the seventh stop named “Almeida Ribeiro”. Cross the road and you will meet the famous square of “Largo do Senado” around 50 meters away from the bus stand. Go around 200 meters more along the way behind the fountain at Largo do Senado. Then, you will meet a small square with a clothing shop of “bossini” on your left. St. Dominic’s Church is standing at the square, too.” In addition to the detailed explanation, this book shows you maps and many photos taken from the bus stand at Macau Airport to St. Dominic’s Church. It is the reason why this book is called as the “ways” to the attractions in Macau. Unfortunately, there is no subway system in Macau. However, they run 70 lines of bus. Therefore, you can fully pay visit all attractions through the fantastic bus system. Keep this book in your pack and fly to the wonderful city of Macau. Then, this book will show you all of the ways to the attractions in Macau. You need neither to chase after a guide nor to ask passers-by for your destination.
