Have you ever felt like a faker? Facebook, Twitter and Instagram allow us to paint beautiful pictures of our lives. But many of us feel like fakers. If people really knew who we were, what would they think? Would they still care?

What would life look like if we stopped pretending?

This book not only explores that question, but provides the thrilling answer found in a short story told 2,000 years ago.

This richly illustrated book for teens and older brings the power of this exciting story to bear on our modern lives.
