Radical Orthodoxy: A Critical Introduction Stephen Shakespeare

Radical Orthodoxy is a new, exciting, sometimes baffling and always controversial, trend in theology. It also has a fearsome and off-putting reputation for complexity. Its books are full of detailed arguments and are crammed with philosophical terms in a range of languages. Here, Steven Shakespeare makes accessible Radical Orthodoxy's key arguments and offers an explanation and critique of its theology. This jargon-free introduction will help students, clergy and those with an interest in theology to engage both with the movement and with the wider debate about the place of the Church in the world.
