What Ails the White House: An Introduction to the Medical History of the American Presidency Jay W. Murphy

The presidency has fascinated readers since George Washington. But less widely known is the medical history of these great men. This book is the result of years of research, with compelling stories of the injuries, illnesses and untimely deaths of our nation's leaders. The chapters explore the impact presidential health had on the president, his family, his nation - and ultimately, the world.
