Albuquerque (Portuguese Edition) José Eduardo Alcázar

Em Albuquerque, o autor nos leva a um vilarejo quase sempre frio, assolado pelo vento constante e algum calor nos meses de verão. Um lugar insólito, antigo entreposto de pesca que deu lugar a um matadouro, depois cidade-balneário que parece estar virando um deserto. As histórias interligam-se em tempos e lugares distintos, mas podem ser lidas como narrativas autônomas. Os personagens são veranistas e moradores, estes últimos compondo uma massa conformista de empregados domésticos, pescadores sem trabalho e subempregados.
