Measuring My Days: Journals of A. C. Gray A. C. Gray

Author A. C. Gray shares journals written over a span of 30 years. These journals were originally written and shared with friends encountered in his work and travels all over the globe during his lifetime careers as an officer in the US Air Force, American National Red Cross, the US Peace Corps, The World Bank, and other academic, federal, and nonprofit organizations. They recount his life experiences and lessons learned all within the context of his Christian faith and his unique perspective of what living really means.
