There's more to Jude Nelson than just a sequined thong. She has big dreams of becoming an artist. There's one tiny wrinkle in her plan-she'll never forget the bloody image of her friend's battered body in the dumpster. Who can a nude dancer turn to for help? Certainly not a hardened undercover cop... Detective Drew Alwyn is on the case to find out who murdered his good friend and fellow officer. But the moment he sees Jude, he can't look away. He has to decide which is more important-his dedication to his job or the girl who holds his bruised and battered heart. Will these two opposites come together to solve the case or will their desire consume them?
