Los paraísos perdidos: Una historia de exilios y pasiones desencontradas (Spanish Edition) Fernanda Pérez

"Dos hombres habitaban su alma: de día uno calmo y trabajador, que se permitía desear a una mujer hermosa; por la noche era otro, colérico y vengativo, en el que no había sitio para el amor."

1828. Termina la guerra del Brasil, en las Provincias Unidas del Río de la Plata, y todos celebran. Pero el Portugués debe regresar con urgencia a su hogar. La muerte, la tragedia y el dolor lo esperan. Y el único camino que encuentra para sobrevivir a tanta fatalidad es la venganza, de la que no sale indemne. Por su parte, Lorenzo es un muchacho alegre, intenso, idealista. Sobre sus espaldas descansa la responsabilidad de cuidar a su familia, los Rojas. Alocado y audaz, decide sumarse a la revuelta de los caciques misioneros para resistir el avance de los correntinos. El destino unirá a estos dos hombres, sellando entre ellos un pacto de amistad y lealtad más allá de las divisiones territoriales. Acechados por sus luchas internas y externas, ambos se enfrentarán a la más exigente de las batallas personales: el amor.

El Portugués tendrá que decidir entre su corazón y sus infiernos. Lorenzo, en cambio, se debatirá entre el deber y ese deseo ingobernable que lo inclina hacia Milagros, su prima. Los paraísos perdidos es el nuevo libro de Fernanda Pérez, autora de Las maldecidas y El Sacramento, quien nos entrega su mejor obra hasta la fecha. Una hermosa e intensa historia de exilios y pasiones desencontradas. Una novela sobre las pérdidas, la esperanza y la redención.
