II Acts is a must read for every pastor, every church leader, and every believer! Here, gifted communicator, Terry Broadwater, teaches new approaches and practical applications for moving and establishing today's churches into God's purpose and pattern given in the New Testament. Drawing from his own experiences in planting and replanting churches, he shares insights, inspiration, and instructions on how to effect change for leaders and churches, evaluate the potential for leading change, recognize and establish the seven foundational pillars of ministry, develop a strategic plan for church and city transformation, and get people into formation as ministry partners.
