Jeshua Barnabus never dreamed that a beggar boy from the streets of Bethlehem would be allowed to witness the arrival of the Messiah. But with a new star to guide them and heavenly messengers heralding the Savior's coming, Jeshua and his friends soon find the infant Lord. And when they do, everyone seems to have something to offer the babe everyone except Jeshua. What gift could a lowly orphan bring that would be fit for the King of Kings? In The Fourth Gift, you'll travel with Jeshua through the dusty streets of ancient Israel and learn for yourself the true reason we give gifts during the Christmas season. J.
