"Three cups of poetry" is a compilation of selected poems by Robab Moheb, Roshanak Bigonah, and Mana Aghaee, three Iranian poets. The collective work represents three generations with distinct voices demonstrating a variety of thoughts. Each poet uses language as a tool to encompass the rites of everyday life, the underlying reflection, and the emotions laced within individual style. "Three cups of poetry" is a collaborative attempt to deliver an understanding of a world, colored by imagination and sensation.
