The Bondage of the Will Martin Luther

First published in 1525, Martin Luther's Bondage of the Will is recognized by theologians as one of the great masterpieces of the Reformation. It is Luther's response to Desiderius Erasmus' Diatribes on Free Will, written in his direct and unique style, combining deep spirituality with humor. Luther writes powerfully about man's depravity and God's sovereignty. The crucial issue for Luther concerned what ability free will has, and to what degree it is subject to God's sovereignty. For Luther, this key issue of free will is directly connected to God's plan of salvation. Is man able to save himself, or is his salvation entirely a work of divine grace? This work is vital to understanding the primary doctrines of the Reformation and will long remain among the great theological classics of Christian history.
