C.G. Jung saw in the cultural history of Western man a progressive evolution of its God-image. During the last ten years of his life, he wrote a series of remarkable letters about the new God-image which is now emerging through the discoveries of depth psychology.

Edinger discusses fourteen of these letters with respect to the epistemological premises?modern man's new awareness of subjectivity; the paradoxical Godthe nature of the new God?image as a union of opposites; and the continuing incarnation?how the new God-image is born in individual men and women.
