Championed by the late Diane Fossey, the endangered mountain gorilla is just one of the animals covered in The World of Primates. With only 700 mountain gorillas left in the wild, those that remain are in great danger from the horror and waste of the illegal animal trade.

This useful and well-designed pocket guide helps to answer all your questions about primates — how do they live, where do they live and what threats are they facing? It is also a handy guide to the sometimes amusing, sometimes puzzling, sometimes disturbing facts about primates that are fast disappearing from our planet. As the reader learns more, they are armed with ideas on how to protect these incredible animals.
