Cursed at Birth Kristopher Allen

Cursed at Birth is a story of a young life riddled with struggle. A life cursed with countless setbacks, betrayal and careless self preservation. As you read, attempt to understand the mind of a lost young man. A young man dealt a bad hand at conception. Born into poverty...Born into the stigma of an unfortunate and vicious cycle. Follow his story as it grabs a hold of all of your human emotions and demands you to acknowledge the cries of what the streets can do to an innocent child's mind and dreams, from birth. Listen, as a young man, who somehow manages to maintain good in his heart, despite the inherited curses of life, is uncontrollably fated to do bad things in order to simply live... Lost, he's compelled to weather the life dealt his way. It's only when he feels he becomes cornered through a series of adverse circumstances that he's forced to find the courage, some cleverness and a little luck to stop living the life, doomed for jail or death and leave it all behind... But there are certain consequences he must first face before getting what he thinks he deserves...
