Urban art is a style of art that relates to cities and city life. Because the urban arts are characterized by existing in the public space, they are often viewed as vandalism and destruction of private property. Although urban art started at the neighborhood level, where a lot of people of different cultures live together, it is an international art form with an unlimited number of uses today. This title will allow students to use information gained from illustrations and photographs, and the words in a text to demonstrate understanding of the text.
